

The Right Path - Tim Patterson

I think I've finally found the right path

I had never thought that this would last
My vision's clear and this mind is set
I'm done with all my fears and all of that.

Come on and strike me in the eye

Go on and tell me yet another lie

I triple dare you to bring your worst
Just watch me. I won't even raise my fist.
Go on and make me feel alone.
I know I'm not on my own.

Come on and strike me in the eye

Go on and tell me yet another lie
